- The minimum investment amount for Investor Shares is GBP 125.000.

Intended Investor: The Fund is addressed to Professional and Well-Informed investors only.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to cash in early.

- The summary risk indicator (SRI) is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.
- We have classified this product as 6 out of 7 which is the second highest risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at high level, and poor market conditions are very likely to impact our capacity to pay you.
- You will receive payments in the product’s currency, which may be different from your domestic currency. In this case, be aware of currency risk. The final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the SRI above. Hedging is available at the available market rate as varied from time to time.
- This product does not include any protection from future market performance, so you could lose some or all of your investment.
- If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

For a more comprehensive description of the risks associated with an investment in the Fund, please refer to Section ‘Risk Factors’ of the Prospectus of the LC London Credit AIF V.C.I.C. Public Ltd and the Fund’s Supplement

- The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment.
- The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if LC London Credit AIF V.C.I.C. Public Ltd is unable to pay out?

Should the Fund be in default or file for bankruptcy, you may suffer loss up to the total amount invested.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest USD 10.000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

Costs over time

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to cash in early.

- The summary risk indicator (SRI) is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.
- We have classified this product as 6 out of 7 which is the second highest risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at high level, and poor market conditions are very likely to impact our capacity to pay you.
- You will receive payments in the product's currency, which may be different from your domestic currency. In this case, be aware of currency risk. The final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the SRI above. Hedging is available at the available market rate as varied from time to time.
- This product does not include any protection from future market performance, so you could lose some or all of your investment.
- If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

For a more comprehensive description of the risks associated with an investment in the Fund, please refer to Section ‘Risk Factors’ of the Prospectus of the LC London Credit AIF V.C.I.C. Public Ltd and the Fund's Supplement

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to cash in early.

- The summary risk indicator (SRI) is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.
- We have classified this product as 6 out of 7 which is the second highest risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at high level, and poor market conditions are very likely to impact our capacity to pay you.
- You will receive payments in the product's currency, which may be different from your domestic currency. In this case, be aware of currency risk. The final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the SRI above. Hedging is available at the available market rate as varied from time to time.
- This product does not include any protection from future market performance, so you could lose some or all of your investment.
- If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

For a more comprehensive description of the risks associated with an investment in the Fund, please refer to Section ‘Risk Factors’ of the Prospectus of the LC London Credit AIF V.C.I.C. Public Ltd and the Fund's Supplement
